

Videos for CSB '20 Recognizing Bible Story Worldviews Workshop by Dr. Anne Alexander

“Meaning only exists in light of a story.” What story is shaping your interpretation of life?

Please take out a pencil and paper and draw a picture of a family, a home and a vehicle.

1. The Importance of Story. <https://vimeo.com/81681021> 6:09 Silo Project (Context is King!)
How is God’s story clearly communicated in the Bible to people of different worldview backgrounds?

How can we clearly communicate God’s story to others of different backgrounds?

(Introduce self, workshop, individuals introduce themselves & basic background in group)

We’ll be exploring different Bible worldviews, using 3 or so significantly different ones.

2. Guilt-Innocence: (The Silo Project has a course on Worldviews, from which this video is taken.) <https://vimeo.com/81738981> 5:15

Breakouts of 2 participants, 7 minutes to discuss story unique to their group.

In many countries, people live in fear of either dictators, corrupt rich people, or evil spirits. This month is Taiwan’s Ghost Month. Yesterday a missionary friend posted on FB she had been attacked by an evil spirit that only left her and her baby after she ordered it to, asking Jesus to cover them with His blood.

What does the Bible have to say to these people?

5. Fear-Power: This short video visualizes the biblical story in fear-power terms. 4:55

How can we story the Gospel for the people in these different worldview groups?

Will this way of understanding work on Scripture? Yes, but translations differ. SHOW 1Pet1:21-22
